U. S. FLIER IS BROUGHT DOWN BY THREE FOES

Paris, December 14—Lieutenant Benjamin Walcott, son of Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., fell in his first air fight Tuesday and it is feared was killed, according to word received here today from the front.

Young Walcott, who is an American aviator, successfully brought down his adversary. While he was streaking it back to the line, however, three German machines attacked him from the rear.

His machine was seen to fall.

Permission was granted the United Press today also to announce that Lieutenant Harold Wright of the American Aviation Service on Thanksgiving Day destroyed a German "sausage balloon."

He swooped down 5000 feet, firing a stream of bullets at the balloon and utterly disregarding a blaze of fire from German antiaircraft guns. One of his shots exploded the gas in the German bag and he returned safely.

IN AVIATION SERVICE

The Georgetown (Ohio) News-Democrat has the following item concerning Mr. Kline Dillman, formerly linotype operator on the Public Ledger:

Kline Dillman of Bethel, Ohio, who enlisted in the government service at Petersburg, Fla., has been assigned to the aviation field at Key West, Fla., where he will commence active training.

DR. HAROVER IS NOW A CAPTAIN

Dr. S. R. Harover, prominent Maysville physician, yesterday received his commission as a captain in the medical reserve corps of the U. S. Army and is now waiting for orders as to his command. He will be attached to a base hospital.

THE DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

Published Daily Except Sunday, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and Christmas by the Ledger Publishing Company, Maysville, Kentucky.
EDITOR AND MANAGER CLARENCE MATHEWS
Local and Long Distance Telephone No. 40. Office—Public Ledger Building. Mailed at the Maysville, Kentucky, Post Office as Second-class Mail Matter.

PUBLIC SALARIES

The common idea is that a congressman's salary is plenty big enough. Maybe it is—for the average congressman. Maybe $7,500 a year is more than that average law-maker could earn in any other occupation. But a fact like the resignation of Congressman John J. Fitzgerald of New York tends to make thinking people wonder whether, after all, we're liberal enough with our congressional salaries.

Mr. Fitzgerald is chairman of the house appropriations committee. His position, always important, is at present one of the biggest jobs in Washington. The man holding that chairmanship has his hands on the control of many billions. He is one of the chief directors of our war program! It is generally accepted that Mr. Fitzgerald is one of the ablest men in the house, and unusually well qualified for this vital work.

Yet in the climax of our war preparations, with enormously large and complicated appropriation bills to whip into shape, Mr. Fitzgerald resigns from congress. He explains:

"In nearly 19 years of continuous service in the house, all of my time has been absorbed in the discharge of public affairs and there has been no opportunity to give any attention to my private affairs. The increasing requirements of a large family and inability to meet my growing obligations necessitate that, before it is too late, I devote myself to my profession to earn sufficient to educate my children properly, to provide them comforts which they should have and to make some provisions for their future." He will therefore resume the practice of law.

Dropping out of the harness at such a time may be regarded by many citizens as an indefensible shirking of duty, no matter how strong the provocation may be. But the question remains. This case is typical of many, in every branch of government, national, state and municipal. It is seldom that a really first-class man can be got into an important office, and seldom that he can be kept there when he is in. We usually blame capable men who prefer private prosperity to impecunious public service. But is the public doing its part?

THE THRIFT BANK

The government savings stamps have made a tremendous hit. Everywhere heavy sales are reported. The stamps are found to appeal to the very class they were intended for, the millions with modest incomes. They reach the people who cannot well afford to buy the Liberty Bonds, and so make the national thrift movement complete.

And the appeal is by no means confined to those in humble circumstances. Well-to-do families, and rich families as well, find the 25-cent thrift stamp a convenient means of saving fractional parts of dollars that otherwise would dribble away without any visible result.

Children of all classes of society take to the plan with enthusiasm. It provides an easy and inspiring way for them to save and invest their money. Every child possessing a $4.12 savings certificate, worth $5 in five years, feels like a bond-holder, with a personal stake in the war. And the child is right.

Just now there is a tremendous demand for these stamps for Christmas presents. Indeed, they are said to be the most popular form of all Christmas gifts in the market.

After the holidays, it is expected that postmen will sell them as they make their rounds. That, as one thrift stamp director remarks, is "just like having the soundest bank in the world brought to your front door." There will be plenty of patronage for that bank.

When we went into the war we thought that it last we were to be no longer surfeited on "diplomatic victories." Lord knows we had a belly full of them before, with a new one brought out every time the Dutchmen sunk a boat. At the outbreak of war our "diplomatic victories" stopped for a while, and we began to prepare for the staging of some real victories through the agency of our boys in khaki. We had almost forgotten the term, and now, like the pale gray taste of the morning after, we are "arriving at happy diplomatic conclusions" with Japan. The "happy diplomatic conclusions" of today look very much to us like the "diplomatic victories" of a year ago. We hope trust and pray that these pills won't be followed by the same gripe.—Durango Herald.

The Ford is an honest car in the fullest sense of the term—built on an honest design with honest materials, sold at an honest price with the assurance of honest performance and an equally honest, efficient after-service. Besides, it has been proved beyond question that the Ford is most economical, both to operate and maintain. It is one of the utilities of daily life. Your order filled. Efficient after-service is behind every Ford. Runabout $845. Touring Car $860. Coupe $860. Sedan $865. One-Ton Truck $800. All

GOVERNMENT TO HELP

In Fighting Out Income Tax—Returns of Income For 1917 Must Be Made Between January 1 and March 1, 1918.

Lexington, Ky., December 14, 1917. You won't have to figure out your own income tax all by yourself hereafter. The government is going to send out men to help you. It will be up to you to hunt up these men, who will be sent into every county seat town, and some other towns besides, to meet the people. Postmasters, bankers and newspapers will be able to tell you where the government's income tax man will be around, and where to find him. He will answer your questions, swear you to the return, take your money, and remove the wrinkles from your brow. Returns of income for 1917 must be made between January 1 and March 1, 1918.

"The Government recognizes," Collector of Internal Revenue Haly said today, "that many persons experience a good deal of difficulty in filling out income tax forms. It recognizes too, that taxpayers resident at points where collectors' offices are not easily accessible find it hard to get proper instruction in the law. Next year, when every married person living with wife or husband and having a net income of $2,000, and every unmarried person not the head of a family and having a net income of $1,000 for the year 1917 must make return of income on the form prescribed, there will be hundreds in every community seeking light on the law, and help in executing their returns. My own and every other collection district in the nation will be divided into districts, with the county as the unit, and a government officer informed in the income tax assigned to each district. He will spend hardly less than a week in each county, and in some counties a longer time, very likely in the courthouse at the county-seat town. In cities where there are collectors' branch offices, he will be there, and in other cities possibly at the city hall. My office will in due time advise postmasters and bankers and send out notices to the newspapers stating when the officer will be in each county. It will be unnecessary for prospective taxpayers to ask my office for forms on which to make returns. The officer who visits their county will have them.

"It may be stated as a matter of general information that 'net income' is the remainder after subtracting expenses from gross income. Personal, family, or living expense is not expense in the meaning of the law, the exemption being allowed to cover such expenses. The new exemptions of $1,000 and $2,000 will add tens of thousands to the number of income taxpayers in

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed; Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble.

It is often the kidney's cry for help. Need it.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys.

Read what Doan's have done for Mayville people.

Mrs. E. Sphar, E. Second and Walnut Sts., Maysville, says: "Whenever I have heard anyone complain of their kidneys, I have never seen Doan's Kidney Pills fail to help them. They have been greatly benefitted by them myself. At times, my back has ached and I have suffered from lameness through the small of my back. When I have been in that way, I have used a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I get at Chancery Drug Store. They have always quickly removed the trouble."

Mrs. Sphar is only one of many Mayville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Sphar had.

The remedy backed by home testimony.

BIG PROFITS IN SHEEP BREED FOR FUR

One of the latest industries introduced into the United States is that of breeding Karakul sheep, natives of Asia, for the production of fur. While the ultimate aim of the business is the sale of Karakul lamb skins for use in garment manufacturing, owing to the limited number of these sheep in the United States and the difficulties incurred in importing new ones, the sale of adult pure-breds and high-grade animals is at present the most profitable feature.

The Karakul may be said to represent a distinct type of sheep, but many persons have hesitated about calling them a breed.

In 1912 L. M. Crawford began the experiment of crossing Karakuls with Lincolns and other long-wool sheep on his 1,900-acre ranch, near Cottonwood Falls, Kansas. This ranch is now known as the Kansas Karakul Ranch and is one of the few in the United States to be devoted to this industry. As a result of crossing Karakuls with Lincoln the half-blood lambs were all black with the luster and curl typical of the pure Karakul.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui. . .

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

BOLSHEVIKI CLAIM VICTORY

And Are Ready To Talk of Peace
Will Likely Quit Fight If Armistice Is Signed.

London, December 14—Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, according to a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd, announces that if an armistice for the eastern front is signed at Brest-Litovsk, the Russian delegates are empowered to enter into peace negotiations.

Korniloff Defeated in Bielegorod

Fight
Petrograd, December 14—In the battle near Bielegorod, according to a Bolshevik state report, General Korniloff's Cossacks were defeated. They retreated to Vasileika.

In connection with the battle at Rostov, the evening newspapers report the Cossacks as victorious, the Bolsheviks having retreated across the Don river to Nakhitchevan.

The Russian Situation

New York, December 14—Bolshevik forces apparently have been successful in the first clashes with the counter revolutionaries and it is reported they have captured the towns of Tamanovka and Kaluga.

General Kaledines is besieging Rostov-on-the-Don, the largest city in the Don province and heavy fighting has been in progress there since Sunday.

Tamanovka is near Bielegorod, 350 miles south of Moscow, and near where the forces of General Korniloff, also a counter revolutionist, are reported to have been engaged in a heavy battle with the Bolsheviks. One report said Korniloff had been defeated and wounded while another said he had been victorious.

Severe fighting has been going on in and around Rostov, which is only twenty-five miles southwest of Novocheskask, the Don Cossack capital. Kaledines' troops besieged the city while Cossack forces within Rostov attacked the Bolsheviks.

The losses are reported to have been heavy on both sides. The Bolsheviks, reported to be commanded by Ensign Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander in chief, were aided by the transport Kolchia.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Tells of Its Future Activities in Bulletin Issued Yesterday.

Speaking of its future activities the Chamber of Commerce Bulletin issued yesterday contained the following:

The improvement, for navigation purposes, of our Ohio River will be one of the most important activities which we are glad will demand some of our time. We intend to make an extra effort to get the farmers together during this year in order that they may discuss matters of mutual benefit. We want them as organized citizens to suggest to us ways by which we can be of service to them and work with each other for all good things for Mason county. We want to help make our county a greater stock raising and agricultural community and encourage the Dairying business also establish a stock sales market where Cincinnati and Chicago buyers may come and purchase fine stock.

A mutual agreement has been formed between the County Judge and Commissioners Elect whereby we will cooperate in an endeavor for Better Roads.

Several plans to advertise Maysville have been made and others under consideration. We believe that we must advertise our city's merits just as does the merchant, the merits of his goods.

Many unsightly places could be transformed into beauty spots by just a little extra effort. A city that assumes a pleasing sight, with its growth, is one in which we would all prefer to live.

We want to help this, our Commonwealth, one of the most useful and needed in the Union.

In conclusion we would state that as an organization we desire to place a few more bricks in that structure of Lasting Peace by helping our government in all her calls for War Service.

The first lot of blank questionnaires was mailed out this morning by the Mason County Exemption Board.

Mrs. Howard Key has returned from a visit to her parents at Augusta.

NAVAL PROBE NOW ORDERED BY CONGRESS

Washington, December 14 — The Senate inquisition into conduct of the war spread to the House of Representatives today when the House Naval Committee voted for a sweeping investigation of the navy. Hearings of the committee will commence immediately. The investigation, it was stated, will go into every phase of the naval situation.

Secretary Daniels and all active admirals right down the list will be called to testify.

A special investigation subcommittee of seven members was appointed as follows:

Oliver (Ala.), Connelly (Kas.), Venable (Mass.), Hensley (Mo.), Britten (Ill.), Hicks (N. Y.), Peters (Me.).

Congressman said the probe was prompted not so much by suspicion of the conduct of affairs as through the rapidly growing determination throughout the country for a more open management of both army and navy.
